HE DR MOKGWEETSI MASISI
DECLARES STATE OF PUBLIC EMERGENCY

TOGETHER WE CAN PREVENT CORONAVIRUS
(COVID-19)

Wash your hands with soap and clean water.

His Excellency The President Dr Mokgweetsi E.K. Masisi on March 31, 2020 declared the State of Public Emergency from April 2, 2020 midnight until further notice. ►

- Section 17 of the Constitution empowers the President to declare state of emergency at any time.
- Parliament will meet within 7 days to seek to extend state of public emergency
- Whilst the emergency is in place, there shall be extreme social distancing, where movement out of the home is only restricted to those performing essential services and transporting essential goods.

Midnight

According to Section 49 of the Interpretation Act Cap 01:04 "midnight", in reference to a day, means the point of time at which that day ends. This means that extreme social distancing starts MIDNIGHT of Thursday. From Friday morning, state of emergency will be in force.
